

California Businesses Commend Senator Dave Cox for Voting Record

In its annual review of lawmakers' voting records on business issues, the California Chamber of Commerce touted Senator Dave Cox's support for legislation impacting businesses.

"With hundreds of thousands of Californians still out of work, we must make job creation and retention a top priority in the Legislature," said Sen. Cox who represents residents of 12 north eastern counties in the state. "I appreciate receiving the recognition from the California Chamber of Commerce, and I will continue to voice my opposition to burdensome regulations on businesses."

Allan Zaremborg, President/CEO of CalChamber, stated in his letter to Cox, "In these economic times, your support for policies that contribute to California's recovery is critical. Your pro-business record of 100% reflects your understanding of those major issues."

Each year, CalChamber reviews lawmakers' voting records and publishes their record in response to numerous requests by member firms and local chambers of commerce.

"Having had the personal experience of starting a small business from the ground up, I understand the challenges and obstacles that businesses face on a daily basis," Cox concluded.
